NEW OFFICERS ELECTED FOR DISCLOSURE COMMISSION

Olympia – Commissioner Susan Brady was unanimously elected today as Chair of the Public Disclosure Commission for the upcoming fiscal year. Brady, Commissioner from Seattle, headed the five member citizens Commission in FY 2000.

“I’m please to serve a second term as Chair of the Commission”, Brady said.

The Public Disclosure Commission, created by Initiative in 1972, provides public access to information about the financing of political campaigns, lobbyists expenditures, and the financial affairs of public officials and candidates.

Commissioner Lois Clement, from Bellingham, was elected Vice-Chair and Earl Tilly, from Wenatchee, was elected Secretary of the Commission.
